

Associate Research Analyst
Legislative Service Office

Duties: Conduct independent policy analysis and general research for the Wyoming Legislature. Prepare objective quantitative and qualitative public policy research, including comparative research, historical research, identification of alternatives, and fiscal analysis.

Qualifications: Bachelor's degree in public policy, economics, political science, business, or related field required. Advanced degree in related field, knowledge of state government, and research experience strongly preferred. Excellent analytical, writing, and interpersonal skills required.

Salary: Negotiable depending on experience and qualifications.

Applications: Please send resume and a one-page writing sample by April 6, 2007 to:
Legislative Service Office, 213 Capitol Building, Cheyenne, WY 82002, ATTN: Don Richards.