

USS WYOMING/DICK CHENEY SCHOLARSHIP

APPLICATION 2008-2009

The USS Wyoming Dick/Cheney Scholarship was created in 1997. This scholarship is awarded annually to Wyoming residents who are about to graduate or have graduated from an accredited high school in the state or who will be attending a Wyoming community college or the University of Wyoming. Consideration will be given to past academic performance, financial need, personal conduct and reputation, extracurricular involvement, service to community and country, demonstration of patriotism and good citizenship, unique or distinguishing qualities, and educational goals.

The purpose of this application is to acquaint the Selection Committee with the candidate. It should be completed but used as an initial point of departure. Please attach letters of recommendation or any other documentation that will reflect those qualities being sought by the Selection Committee. Photocopies, etc. are acceptable. Additional sheets may be attached, if needed, in order to fully answer a question.
