

Graduate Student Orientation and Education Day at the:

November 14, 2009

The bus will depart the Animal Science/Molecular Biology
parking lot at 8:00 AM

Contact Kathleen Bertoncilj
(KathBert@uwyo.edu or 766-3667) by November 5 to reserve a seat on the bus and advise of diet restrictions.

Graduate Student Orientation and Education Day Program:

8:00 AM Depart Animal Science/Molecular Biology parking lot

10:30 AM Arrive at SAREC & restroom break

10:45 AM Welcome and Introductions

11:00 AM Responsible Conduct of Research Workshop, Carol Frost, Associate Vice President, Office of Research and Economic Development

12:15 PM Lunch provided by SAREC. Please inform Kathleen of diet restrictions when reserving a seat on the bus.

1:15 PM Overview of SAREC facilities and resources, Jim Freeburn, Director of Operations, SAREC

1:35 PM Baseline cropping systems, Jim Krall, Director of Research, SAREC

1:55 PM Baseline livestock systems, Steve Paisley, Livestock Extension Specialist, SAREC

2:15 PM Student experiences & discussions on crops research moderated by Jim Krall

2:35 PM Student experiences & discussions on livestock research activities moderated by Steve Paisley

2:55 PM Discussion of the Ag systems research project moderated by Cody Molle, Project Manager, SAREC

3:15 PM Restroom break

3:25 PM Walking tour of SAREC facilities, Jim Freeburn

4:00 PM Depart SAREC